Sarah Ballard

Birth: Jun. 11, 1782
Death: Sep. 16, 1855

The Ballards were Quakers from Virginia/North Carolina. Many Quakers migrated to Central and Eastern Indiana during the 1800's. Especially the area of Westfield, Indiana. Many of my Quaker ancestors lived in Westfield and are buried in several Westfield Cemeteries. The Pleasant View Cemetery being one of them. A very small Cemetery with about a dozen interments.

TOADVİN

The country below the Nanticoke River, now comprising the three counties of Wicomico, Worcester and Somerset, was originally embraced in the limits of the latter county. This territory is fortunate in still possessing many men bearing the fine old surnames brought there in the latter half of the seventeenth century by original immigrants directly from Great Britian to the Palatinate, or by migrations from the Crown Colony of Virginia. Among the men who came early from England was Nicholas Toadvine, who was in Somerset County as early as 1675. In that year his marriage to the mother of his race in Maryland is recorded in Liber DBIKL, p. 257, of the Land records of Somerset County, as follows:

"Nicholas Toadvine and Sarah Lowry married by Mr. William Brereton one of his Lordships Justices of ye County of Somersett ye fifteenth day of November Anno Domj one thousand six hundred and seventy-five." Then follow the records in the same Land Record on pages 257, 258 and 259 of the births of four of his children, viz.:

"Ann Toadvine ye daughter of Nicholas Toadvine was born of Sarah his wife at Wicomoco ye third day of February Annoq Dominj one thousand six

Notes:

Nicholas Tostevin (Toadvine)

In 1670, Nicholas Tostevin had a garden east of le Mange, Guernsy, CHI.

In Early Tostevins of Guernsey written by David E. Pedgley OBE BSc, Nicolas left Guernsey and went from England to Maryland in 1675.

Note name change with recorded arrival in Maryland.

A Nicholas Toadvane (Toadvine) of Guernsey was recorded arriving in Maryland from England. He emigrated aboard the ship Bachelor with ship Captain Roger Bagg. He married Sarah Lowry (Lowery?) who had also been on the Bachelor in 1675 in Somerset County, Maryland.

1681/2 Royal Court appointed an attorney presumably because he was overseas. He, younger brother Leonard, and 4 sisters renounced their interest in their late father's property that was probably worth less than the debt on it.

Acquired land: 1682 150 acres in land called Guernsey
100 acres in land called Jersey

There may have been as many as 10 children.

Side-Lights on Maryland History: with sketches of early Maryland families by Hester Dorsey

Richardson on p 454 noted that "Nicholas Toadvine and Sarah Lowry were married by Mr. William Brereton one of his Lordships Justices of ye County of Somersett ye fifteenth day of November 1675." Married in Salisbury Maryland.
